THE STONE GUEST

Brian Hogg

Duration: 6'20"

Level: 4

Program Notes:

Capture the drama, passion and musicianship of Mozart's opera, Don Giovanni, in this exciting set of original variations. Hogg utilises themes from Mozart and blends them skilfully with his own melodic and contrapuntal inventiveness to provide the symphonic wind repertoire with a truly outstanding work. This is an opportunity for your band to demonstrate their lyrical and technical ability in a work suitable for concert or contest. The work was awarded the winner of the 1994 Brolga Music Composition Contest.

Rehearsal Notes:

The melody throughout this set of variations is never too far away. Very little melodic change has been given to the original tune so that it will always be easily recognisable. The variations are more evident in the changing character of the music and the accompaniments. A knowledge of the story will be helpful in the development of the musicians approach and treatment of the music.

The opening treatment of the tune should be full of mystery; don't go too fast - it would be better to err on the slow side of the tempo marked. Ensure the clear entry of the voices in the fugal section that follows [21]. Tempo here is extremely important; the same pulse continues until [60].

Clarity of articulation and style is essential. Accents should be agile, never aggressive (treat the faster section in a "classical" style). The emotional core of the piece follows the clarinet cadence. Give soloist and ensemble room to be expressive; use the dynamics and tempo variations to their full extent. Precision would be the most important work for the Scherzo.

The lightness of the upper woodwinds should continue throughout this section allowing the cantabile melody to contrast at [15]. Keep a steady and constant pulse through the metre changes. Again try to capture the character of each section of the music.

About the Composer:

Brian Hogg was born in Yorkshire, England, and came over to Australia in 1964 with his parents. He now considers himself an Australian and is currently head of brass studies at Yarra Valley Anglican School in Ringwood, a Melbourne suburb.

Brian has a Diploma of Music and a Bachelor of Education, and enjoys a growing reputation as a composer/conductor. He has been involved in music making throughout Australia as a guest conductor at music camps and as an adjudicator.

Through his activity as a musician in the Salvation Army his works for brass band have been played and recorded internationally. His compositions for concert and symphonic bands have earned him the Australian Band and Orchestra Director's Association's Composer of the Year Award in 1986 and 1989.

N.B. Please include the details of his work in your performing rights return or send details of performance to the publisher.
